

FINAL DESIGN REVIEW

The Ohio State University

Strategic Visioning for the Morse Road Corridor

The focus of this review is to present to Northland area residents and stakeholders with a vision for The Morse Road Corridors”

Connecting Community

Key issues: Safety, Open Space + Natural Resources, Accessibility + Connectivity, Economic Revitalization and Cultural Celebration

Facilitated by:

The OSU
City and Regional Planning Program
Community Design Studio Team

Location:

Haimeri Center Building
1421 Morse Road
Columbus, Ohio
Zip Code 43229

Date: Wednesday April 30th Time: 6:00 pm

1) Introductions: (5 minutes)

Project Introduction: Joyce Bourgault
Studio Instructors: Jesus J. Lara

2) Background, Design Process and Organization: (20 minutes)

Phase 1: Challenges and Opportunities.
Phase 2: Quantitative Data
Phase 3: Outreach and engagement activities and group Guiding Principles.
Phase 4: Concept plan and identity formation
Q&A (5 to 10 minutes)

3) Strategic Visioning Plans for two community projects(60+/- minutes)

Northland Greenways: Short-term Projects and Long-term Projects: (15 minutes)

Introduction, programming, context and analysis, master land use plan
Group takeaway points
Q&A (5 to 10 minutes)

Northland Hubs: Short-term Projects and Long-term Projects: (15 minutes)

Introduction, programming, context and analysis, master land use plan
Group takeaway points
Q&A (5 to 10 minutes)

4) Closing Remarks Q&A (10 minutes)

Group takeaway points

Contact information:

Jesus J. Lara
Ohio State University
lara.13@osu.edu
(614) 292-7452

Joyce Bourgault
Helping Hands Health and Wellness Center, Inc
614-262-5094
www.helpinghandsfreeclinic.org
Executive Director